

Bank of Ireland is closely involved in the mortgage industry's initiative with UK Finance and Which? to make our fees and charges easy for you to understand.

Our tariff of charges fully reflects the initiative's good practice principles. This same document is being used across the industry to help customers compare mortgages.

When looking at the fees that other firms charge, you may notice some that don't appear in our tariff (below). This means we don't charge you these fees.

When will you pay this charge?

Before your first Monthly Payment.

These are the fees and charges you may have to pay before we transfer your mortgage funds.

Name of charge	What this charge is for	How much is this charge?
Lending fee	This fee is charged for providing a new mortgage. It's due to be paid when your mortgage is set up, but you can choose to pay it when you pay off your mortgage in full. The fee will stay the same and we won't charge interest on it if you pay it when your mortgage ends. Unless you contact us, we'll assume you want to pay the fee at the end of the mortgage.	£195
Funds transfer fee	Electronically transferring the mortgage funds to you or your solicitor.	£15
Legal fee	You will normally instruct a solicitor to act on your behalf in connection with your home purchase transaction. You may be required to pay their legal fees and costs as part of their work on your behalf. These fees/costs are normally charged by the solicitor, directly to you unless we tell you that we will contribute to the legal costs as part of your product deal.	These fees/costs are charged by the solicitor directly to you
Product fee	This is charged on some mortgages as part of the deal. It can be paid up-front or added to the total mortgage amount. If you add it to your mortgage, you'll pay interest on it at the same rate as the rest of your borrowing. It might be a flat fee, or a percentage of the loan amount.	£0-£3,995
Re-inspection fee	If your mortgage is released in stages and you're using it to renovate your home, this covers the new valuation we need to do after the work's carried out. At Bank of Ireland we may charge this in additional circumstances such as Northern Ireland Self Build cases, or where immediate works are required to the property. We will tell you if you are required to pay a re-inspection fee.	£50

Valuation fee	Valuation and Surveys When you buy a house and need a mortgage, we will commission a mortgage valuation. The mortgage valuation advises us of the value of a property and of any characteristics of the property (including significant defects) which might affect its value as security for the proposed loan. You should not rely on the mortgage valuation when deciding whether to purchase the property or how much you should pay for it. It is not a survey and is for our benefit, rather than yours.  If you want a more detailed survey, you'll need to arrange this yourself with a Surveyor. This will provide information on any specific areas you'd like covered and on the condition of the property. You can find more information on local surveyors and the different types of survey on the Royal Institution of Surveyors (RICS) website at https://www.rics.org/uk/	Property value Up to £150,000 £150,001-£250,000 £250,001-£350,000 £350,001-£500,000 £500,001-£750,000 £750,001-£1,000,000 £1,000,001-£1,500,000 £1,500,001-£2,000,000 £2,000,001-£2,500,000 £2,500,001-£3,000,000 £3,000,001-£3,500,000 £3,500,001-£4,000,000	Fee £240 £310 £360 £470 £610 £840 £940 £1,090 £1,290 £1,490 £1,690 £1,890
	Scottish valuations In Scotland, it is a legal requirement that the seller provides potential purchasers with a Home Report. This includes a Mortgage Valuation Report and provides buyers with information regarding the condition and value of a property, ahead of committing to the purchase. We may be able to use the Mortgage Valuation included in the Home Report to assess the property as part of your application, meaning you won't have to pay for a separate valuation.
Please note these valuation fees include an administration fee of £90. Re-inspections incur a minimum charge of £50 per visit (this includes an administration fee of £8.50). All fees are non-refundable once the inspection has taken place.
