by you and howsoever occurring under or in connection with these Terms and Conditions) unless such loss (by which we mean direct loss only and not consequential loss, loss of profit, loss of investment opportunity, or loss of anticipated savings by you) is a reasonably foreseeable consequence or arises directly from our negligence, wilful default or fraud.

- 14.3. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions will exclude or restrict any duty or liability we may have to you under general law which may not be excluded or restricted thereunder.

You must advise the Bank without undue delay, and no later than thirteen (13) months after the Transaction date, of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed Transactions. If you are a Corporate Customer, it shall be your responsibility to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Bank that any such transaction was actually unauthorised or incorrectly executed.

In the event of an unauthorised Transaction out of the Account, the Bank will, subject to clauses 15.5.3 to 15.5.5 below, refund the amount of such unauthorised Transaction and will restore the Account to the state it would have been in but for the unauthorised Transaction. If it is subsequently determined that a refund or restoration was applied but the Transaction was authorised the Bank will be entitled to reverse and recover any refund or restoration paid without any further reference to you.

- 15.5.4. - 15.5.6. In the event of any incorrectly executed Transaction resulting from the acts or omissions of the Bank, the Bank will refund the amount of such incorrectly executed Transaction and will restore the Account to the state it would have been in had the incorrectly executed Transaction not taken place. If you are a Banking Customer, the Bank must prove to you that the payment was received by the payee's service provider. Where we cannot do so, a refund will be made without undue delay. If you are not a Banking Customer, the Bank reserves the right to investigate any such Transaction to determine that it was incorrectly executed, and was not received by the payee's payment service provider, before making any refund.

- 15.5.7. Where any Transaction is not executed or is defective as a result of you providing information under clause 5.2 which was incorrect the Bank shall have no liability to you in respect of such Transaction.
