 - (b) you have breached any terms of the Agreement (including these Terms and Conditions); or
 - (c) continuing your Account would cause us to breach the requirements of any judicial, regulatory or governmental body having jurisdiction over us (or would cause us disproportionate difficulty or cost in complying with such requirements); or
 - (d) we are required to do so under applicable law or regulation; or

- 27. All other proposed changes will be notified to you at least two months before they take effect. Such changes will be deemed to be accepted by you unless you advise us to the contrary. Transactions on your Account

- 30. If we do not execute or incorrectly execute a transaction we will without undue delay take whatever action is necessary to rectify the error or omission.
- 31. We may refuse to make a payment from your Account if:
 - ▶ you have insufficient available funds in your Account;
 - ▶ you have given us unclear, incorrect or incomplete instructions;
 - ▶ you are in breach of your Agreement;
 - ▶ we suspect fraud or other illegal activity;

- ▶ we believe there is any significant adverse change in your financial circumstances;
- ▶ we have any legal or regulatory reason; or
- ▶ we consider that our business reputation may be significantly compromised.

If we refuse to make a payment we will notify you. We may do this in a variety of ways depending on the nature of your Account and type of payment:

- ▶ ATM transactions – by displaying a message on the ATM or other point of sale payment terminal immediately;
- ▶ Direct debits and standing orders – by displaying related charges on your bank statement;
- ▶ For other payment types (e.g. telegraphic transfers) – by contacting you directly to advise you that the payment request has been refused.

- ▶ you are in breach of these Terms and Conditions; or
- ▶ we believe there is a significant adverse change in your financial circumstances.

If a third party bank gives us evidence that within the last 2 months an amount has been paid into your Account incorrectly, then we will protect that amount and you will not be able to withdraw it from your Account. We do not need your permission before we do this but we will give you at least 15 Business Days' notice to contact us and dispute the claim before we send the funds back to the third party bank.

If a third party bank gives us evidence that between 2 and 36 months previously an amount has been paid into your Account incorrectly, or if a third party bank tells us that an amount has been paid into your Account incorrectly but cannot give us enough information about the mistake, then we will contact you for permission before we send the funds back to the third party bank.

If we do this, we will let you know why as soon as possible.

33. If at any time you become aware of:
- ▶ A transaction on your Account that has not been correctly executed; or
 - ▶ A transaction on your Account that has not been authorised by you, you must in each case notify us without undue delay and, in any event, within 13 months of the debit date of the transaction by contacting your local branch so we can investigate the transaction.
34. The sooner you notify us and the more information you can provide about the transaction, the quicker we will be able to determine whether the transaction was in fact unauthorised or executed incorrectly. In some cases, we may ask you to put your query in writing. Failure to notify us promptly may mean that you are not entitled to a refund from us or other form of redress.
35. Once you have notified us of an alleged unauthorised or incorrectly executed transaction on your Account, we will promptly investigate your claim. In some cases, we may ask you to give us further information about the transaction (for instance to enable us to confirm that the transaction was properly authenticated) or to cooperate with the police or other enforcement bodies.
36. Where it is established that the transaction was not authorised by you, we will (subject to Conditions 37 and 39 below) refund the full amount of the transaction and, if applicable, restore the Account to the state it would have been in had the unauthorised transaction not taken place.
37. Where an unauthorised transaction is made using: (a) a lost or stolen ATM card; or (b) your ATM PIN by someone other than you, and in each case you have reported it in accordance with the provisions of Condition 33, you will be liable for any unauthorised transaction, subject to a limit of £35 PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT you have not acted fraudulently or failed with intent or gross negligence to protect the security of your Account in which case you will be liable for all unauthorised transactions and for any and all Losses incurred by us in respect of such unauthorised use.

38. Where it is established that the transaction was incorrectly executed by us, we will (subject to Condition 39 below) refund the full amount of the transaction and, if applicable, restore the Account to the state it would have been in had the incorrectly executed transaction not taken place.
39. We reserve the right to refuse a refund Under Condition 36 (for unauthorised transactions) and Condition 38 (for incorrectly executed transactions) on your Account where you fail to notify us within 13 months of the debit date of the transaction.
40. We reserve the right to debit from your Account the amount of any refunds paid to you where, upon further investigation, it is subsequently established that you are not entitled to a refund. If there is insufficient balance on the Account to debit the amount of any refunds paid to you in circumstances where you are not entitled to a refund, we reserve the right to take all reasonable steps (including legal proceedings) to recover from you the amount of any such refunds together with any fees, charges or expenses that we have incurred.

Maintenance of the Account

41. If an amount is debited or credited to your Account in error by the Bank, the Bank may make any necessary correcting entry on your Account without the need for the Account Holder's approval.
42. If a credit to the Account is subsequently recalled or not credited by the paying bank the Bank may make any necessary correcting reversal entry without the Account Holder's approval and the Account Holder will be liable to pay the Bank any debit which may arise as a result.

43. Any correspondence or notices sent by the Bank to the Account Holder by post to the last address notified by the Account Holder, shall be deemed to be received by the Account Holder two Business Days after dispatch by ordinary post, or immediately upon delivery by hand.

Waiver

44. No time or indulgence that we may extend to you and no waiver by us of any breach of any term or condition of these Terms and Conditions shall affect our rights and powers under the Terms and Conditions.

Indemnity

45. You shall hold us harmless from any loss or damage suffered by any person as a result of your breach of any of the Terms and Conditions.

Dormant Accounts (Variable Rate Products)

46. If you do not make any transactions on your savings Account for three years then we may treat your Account as being dormant to reduce the risk of fraudulent activity. This means that we may stop sending you statements, letters and if relevant to your Account, ATM Cards. To make your Account active again you will have to contact your branch and provide evidence of your identity. The Account will always be your property.

Errors

47. Whilst we will try to operate your Account accurately, mistakes may occur. If you are aware that an amount has been incorrectly credited or debited to your Account you should notify us immediately. If you use funds with the knowledge that they were incorrectly transferred into your Account, we may take steps to recover the money from you or take it from your Account and take such other proceedings or actions as may be appropriate.

48. If we become aware of an error we will notify you and amend the error accordingly, including removing any money incorrectly transferred into your Account.
49. If we, or any other person, debit or credit an amount to your Account in error, you agree that we may make a necessary correcting entry to your Account without having to seek your prior approval. Where any amounts are debited to your Account in error, our total liability to you shall, unless otherwise stated, be limited to payment to you of an equivalent.

Claims on your Account

50. If another person makes a claim for any funds in your Account (for example, if someone takes legal action to recover funds they believe belong to them), or if we know or believe that there is a dispute involving someone else about who owns or controls funds in the Account, we may:
 - ▶ put a hold on your Account and refuse to pay out any funds until we are satisfied that the dispute has ended;
 - ▶ send the funds to the person who we have good reason to believe is legally entitled to them, or transfer the funds to the linked Account;
 - ▶ continue to rely on the current records we hold about you;
 - ▶ apply for a court order; or
 - ▶ take any action we feel is necessary to protect us.

If we have acted reasonably, we will not be liable to you for taking any of these steps.

Our Liability

51. We will not be liable to you in respect of any losses that you or any other person may suffer or incur in connection with, or relating to your Account except where such losses are due solely to our or our agents' acts, errors or omissions. In particular, we will not be liable to you or any other person for any losses due to:
 - ▶ your instructions not being sufficiently clear;
 - ▶ your acts, errors or omissions (for instance, where you have failed to provide correct information or to keep your information up-to-date);

- ▶ any actions, limits or regulations imposed by any governmental, regulatory or other official body of any kind from time to time;
- ▶ any acts, errors or omissions of a third party (e.g. an ATM operator or retailer); or
- ▶ anything which is expressly excluded or limited in the Agreement.

52. We will not be liable for any delay or failure in performing any of our obligations under the Agreement where such delay or failure arises because of civil disturbance, strike or industrial action or any other circumstances beyond our reasonable control. Furthermore, we will not be liable to you for any losses whatsoever if we are prevented from providing banking or payment services by reason of acts of terrorism, failure of power supplies, interruption or breakdown of mobile phone networks, telecommunications networks or the internet, or the destruction, breakdown or malfunction of any third party systems, equipment or hardware.
53. Nothing in the Agreement will operate to limit or exclude our liability for any losses where limitation or exclusion is prohibited by law.

8. Details of current interest rates are available from any of our branches.
9. Interest rates are calculated daily based on the London Money Markets.

Account Features

10. Subject to Specific Conditions 15 and 16, no early Withdrawals can be made from the Account. If, due to exceptional circumstances, we allow you to withdraw part or all of the deposit after the 14 day cooling off period and before the end of the fixed term, you will have to pay a fee that reflects our costs or the difference between the original deposit rate and the higher market rate prevailing. We refer to this as a "Breakage Charge". This will be calculated as follows:

$$\frac{P \times (R-D) \times T}{365}$$

Where: P = Amount Withdrawn

R = Replacement Market Rate

D = Rate on the Account

T = Remainder of fixed term in days

Example:

$$\frac{\pounds 10,000 \times (5.25 - 3.5) \times 62}{365} = \pounds 29.73$$

Before making an early Withdrawal you are advised to ask for details of the Breakage Charge. A minimum fee of £25 applies. Please see our Schedule of Charges for details available at any branch or by visiting our website, bankofirelanduk.com

11. If an early Withdrawal requested by you results in the reduction of the balance in the Account to below £10,000, the entire balance in the Account, with all accrued interest, will be transferred automatically to the Linked Service Account and will earn interest at the rate applicable to the Linked Service Account. A Breakage Charge will apply to the entire balance.
12. We will issue statements detailing the amount deposited, the rate of interest and the fixed term when you open your Account and when your Account matures or when you close it.

Maturity of the Account

13. Unless you tell us otherwise by 11.00am on the date of maturity, your Account will be renewed automatically. The balance on the Account including accrued interest up to the maturity date (unless you have otherwise specified) will be redeposited at our then prevailing fixed term deposit rate and for the same period of time as the previous fixed term.
14. Any Withdrawal of the balance and interest from the Account at maturity must be made through the Linked Service Account.

Death and Change of Parties to Account

15. In the event of the death of a sole Account holder the personal representative may withdraw the entire balance and any interest accrued up to the date of Withdrawal through the Linked Service Account. A Breakage Charge will not apply.

16. If an Account is held on a joint basis by two or more Account holders, if for any reason, including death, the first named Account holder ceases to be party to the Account, the Account may be closed and a new Account may be opened in the name of the remaining Account holders subject to agreement of new Terms and Conditions. The entire balance in the Account and any interest accrued up to the date of the transfer may be transferred to the new Account. A Breakage Charge may apply but not in the event of the death of the first named Account holder.

Data protection – using your information

Important information about you and us, Bank of Ireland UK

Bank of Ireland UK is a member of the Bank of Ireland Group. In this statement, 'our group' means the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland and any of our subsidiary or associated companies. For a full list of our group, write to us at the address below. We may hold your information and it may be used by any other member of our group.

Considering your application

To help us decide whether to enter into this and any future agreement with you, we may use:

- ▶ any information you have given us
- ▶ information we already hold about you
- ▶ information we receive from enquiries we make about you; and
- ▶ information we get from other dealings with us or our group

We may make and keep copies of your passport, driving licence or other proof of your identity that you provide.

We may also search your record held by credit reference agencies or ask them to make enquiries for us. We may give credit reference agencies the information they need to make their enquiries. The credit reference agencies will keep a record of our search, whether or not your application goes ahead. This record will be available to other organisations that make similar searches and could affect your ability to get credit elsewhere for a short period of time.

Information the credit reference agencies hold about you may already be linked to records relating to other people. (This is called an 'association'.) You may be considered to be financially linked to these people and we may consider their credit records when considering your application.

If you are providing information on behalf of others within your business, you are applying for credit with someone else, or you have told us about a financial link with another person, you must be sure that you are entitled to:

- ▶ release information about that other person and anyone else you have referred to; and
- ▶ authorise us to search, link or record information about you (and anyone you have referred to) at credit reference agencies

Credit reference agencies will create a link between your credit records and those of any person you have said that you have a financial relationship with. When you or the people you have a financial relationship with apply for credit in the future, both your and their credit records will be taken into account. This process will continue until one of you tells the credit reference agencies that there is no longer a financial link. We may also use a credit-scoring system or other automated system for making a decision.

Using and sharing your information

We will add to your record with the Credit Reference Agencies by giving information relating to your Agreement and information about how you manage your account and your repayment record. We will also tell them of any default and any change of address you fail to tell us about where any payment is overdue. It is important that you give us accurate information. We will check your details with fraud prevention agencies. If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information.

The information we obtain will be shared with and cross-checked by other businesses, including Bank of Ireland Group companies, other lenders, fraud prevention agencies, companies or other bodies which maintain registers of assets and interests in them, any insurers, third parties engaged by us and anyone who introduced you to us. We and other organisations may also access and use this information to prevent fraud and money laundering, for example, when:

- ▶ checking details on applications for credit and credit related or other facilities

- ▶ verifying your identity
- ▶ tracing debtors, recovering debt
- ▶ managing credit and credit related accounts or facilities and administer your Account
- ▶ checking details on proposals and claims for all types of insurance
- ▶ checking details of job applicants and employees
- ▶ carrying out statistical analysis and market research, and
- ▶ developing and improving the products and services we provide and make available

This information will also be shared with Bank of Ireland Group companies (“the Companies”) so that they may carry out statistical research and analysis, compliance and regulatory reporting and administration of the Account. Please contact us at Bank of Ireland, Group Financial Crime Unit, Lower Ground Floor, Mespil Road, Dublin 4 if you want to receive details of the relevant fraud prevention agencies. We and other organisations may access and use, from other countries, the information recorded by fraud prevention agencies.

We may make and keep copies of your passport, driving licence or other proof of your identity that you provide.

We may require and hold details of your tax residency and tax reference number(s) to enable us to comply with UK legislation relating to inter-governmental agreements to share tax information that the UK government may agree.

Direct marketing

We may use your information to help us identify products and services which may be of interest to you and may contact you from time to time. We may also give information about you to:

- ▶ our group; and
- ▶ any other person or company we choose from time to time, so that they can use it for similar purposes

We may contact you by post, phone, e-mail, fax and in any other way. Please note that if you have any other accounts with our group and/or have, at any time, provided marketing preferences different to those provided in this application, you may receive marketing information in accordance with the earlier preferences.
